UNLOCKING POTENTIAL

WITH THE DOFORO TECHNIQUE

For over 20 years, Miguel has been making his mark in the worlds of community arts and commercial entertainment. As a self-taught choreographer, artistic director, and creative explorer of his own technique, The Doforo Technique, Miguel has made a name for himself as a passionate and innovative leader in his field.

Miguel's journey began with a childhood passion for dance, which he pursued through his teenage years. Despite facing significant obstacles Miguel never gave up on his dream and his determination and resilience ultimately paid off, propelling him to a successful career in community arts and commercial entertainment.

Today, Miguel's unique value proposition is centred around his five brand pillars: Unity, Strength, Diversity, Creativity, and Love. These values are at the heart of everything he does, from his choreography and creative direction to his project management, social enterprise, and business development expertise.

Miguel's experience and accomplishments are impressive! He has been a three-time Semi-Finalist on Britain's Got Talent, performed at the F1 Abu Dhabi Grand Prix, Michael Jackson's Killer Thriller Party, MTV EMA Awards, Radio City Live, and for artists such as P!nk and Katy Perry. He has also been involved in shows and modelling for brands like Boohoo, Light Water Valley Theme Park, Bolesworth International Horse Show, and supplied dancers to work with Footlocker.

But what truly sets Miguel apart is his passion for making change and delivering social value through his work. His experience working in community arts and commercial entertainment makes him uniquely qualified to help others achieve their goals.

With Miguel's expertise and unique approach, anything is possible.
